Concert III "Brazen Overtures!" Saturday, January 28, 2012 ~ 7:30 PM

- Rossini: Overture to William Tell
- Barber: Overture to the "School for Scandal"
- Bernstein: Overture to Candide...And more . . .

Guest Conductor Thomas Hojnacki returns to the CHSO Podium to lead a colorful and exciting evening of popular and well known offerings from the orchestral overture repertoire, and Baritone David Murray guests to sing Gustav Mahler's touching "Songs of a Wayfarer."

Concert IV "Sing Britannia" Saturday, March 10, 2012 ~ 7:30 PM

- Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 3 "The Scotch"
- Elgar: Enigma Variations

German composer Felix Mendelssohn's Third Symphony, inspired by his frequent holiday trips to Scotland, paired with Edward Elgar's elegant and profound "Enigma Variations" evoke a vast musical color palate of all things "Britannic"

Family Concert Sunday, March 25, 2012 3 PM

The Claflin Hill Symphony presents an engaging & accessible Family Concert Instrument Petting Zoo before and after the concert.

Concert V "Praises" Saturday, April 28, 2012 ~ 7:30 PM

- Vivaldi: Gloria
- Walton: Belshazzar's Feast

The Twelfth Season comes to a glorious climax as the New World Chorale joins forces with the CHSO in two magnificent paeans – Vivaldi's beautiful "Gloria" and English composer William Walton's colorful and spectacular "Belshazzar's Feast" an orchestral/chorale tone poem depicting the Israelites flight from ancient Babylon. An absolute, not to be missed evening of monumental sound.
